

Robert N. Baker was born May 1, 1942 in Palmyra, North Carolina. Robert peacefully entered into eternal rest on January 8, 2021.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Josephine Baker; two brothers, Albert and James Baker; sister, Bertha Mae B. Weathersbee and son, Robert A. Baker.

Robert accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Roanoke Zion Baptist Church in Palmyra, North Carolina. Robert was educated in the North Carolina Public School System.

Robert united with Peace Baptist Church on March 27, 2005 and was later ordained as a Deacon. He also served as a member of Share Food Ministry, Sons of Peace and the Transportation Ministry for fifteen years. Robert had a compassion for driving and could give you directions to anywhere you wanted to go.

Robert was a lover of cars and admired for his cars to be shiny and clean. He was the 1st African American to be hired as a Vault Manager for Dunbar Armored Company in Maryland. During his tenure there, he was often chosen as employee of the month for being the "neatest and cleanest."

Robert was loved by many and was admired for being dependable and helpful. He believed in doing things the right way. His favorite saying was "WAIT ON THE LORD." His favorite songs were "For Your Tears I Died" and "Jesus Will Fix It For Me" by Rev. F.C. Barnes.

Robert leaves to cherish his wife, Camilla Baker of 53 years; three daughters: Jacqueline (Michelle) Baker, Shirley Rousseau and Eve Williams; one grand-daughter, Amber Baker; two grandsons, Mikell and Isaiah Stafford and one great-grandson, Jair Mikell Stafford.

He also leaves his sister; Mary Baker, a host of nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews; great- great nieces and nephews, family and friends.

OPENING HYMN

SCRIPTURE

~Old Testament~ 23 PSALM

¹The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

²He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

³He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

⁴Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

⁵Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

⁶Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

~New Testament~ COLOSSIANS 3:22-25

²²Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as men pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God;

²³And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

²⁴Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

²⁵But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

Loving

- HUSBAND - FATHER - GRANDFATHER -

Dad, Grand Dad there are no words to express how I feel
But we thought of you today
And we thought of you yesterday
And days before that too
But you know that is nothing new
We now think of you in silence
And often speak your name
Now all we have are memories
And a picture in a frame
Those memories we will hold dear
And they will never part
God has you in his keeping
But we have you deeply in our hearts
